You are rebellious even by toddler standards, always pushing the boundaries and fine-tuning your negotiation skills.

Your obsession with football and the Green Bay Packers continues to grow.

After Daddy and I dropped you off, we went out to breakfast.

I hope you never lose that.

You have started to memorize parts of books, so you often help me read.

You speak in complex sentences and sing songs.

.it's a great place for you and I'm so happy to see you thriving there! I can't believe that tomorrow I will have a three-year-old boy.

Almost all of the time, you can tell us what you are trying to say and we actually understand! You rarely sign anymore because you know how to say all of the words you used to sign.

This morning, we were snuggling in Mommy's and Daddy's bed after you woke up and you were telling me the animals you saw on the ceiling (T-rex, bunny rabbit, ant); the morning sun coming in between the window blinds created a shadow from the ceiling fan.

I talk about all things related to motherhood, babies, families and frugal living.
