You hit, kicked, pushed, and threw things over and over.

You throw your hands up in the air triumphantly when they score a touchdown and you clap when something exciting happens.

And yet, spending my days with you - seeing the world through your eyes - it keeps me young.

Even when I'm pulling my hair out, I still feel that way every day.

Big tears, ugly crying in the middle of a public place.

Even when you're watching TV, you often bounce up and down in the living room like you have springs in your feet.

If I say, "Up," you will say, "Down" and so on.

You get really hyper at night and flip around in our bed like a gymnast or wrestle with Daddy.

You know your ABCs, and the sound each letter makes.

You still have a fear of most foods that aren't cookies or crackers.
