I can't wait to see what new adventures this next year will give us! Love
You jump on him, head-butt him, and tackle him every chance you get.
You don't like getting messy, but you love to color and do projects where you can use tools, like paintbrushes for example.
It's my hope as a parent that I can encourage that side of you while discouraging the hitting and kicking.
Thankfully, I know you're growing because you keep outgrowing shoes and clothes - but I'm sure this is only because of the supplements and formula you take.
You have a very logical mind.
Currently, every car ride is exciting because you cheer me on when I drive through a green light.
But we'll save that for the next, "Dear Caleb" blog post.
And you did even better than I had hoped.
As you can see, I have learned quite a bit about dinosaurs with you, too! You have also started to get into Daniel Tiger and you really like the movie Frozen (along with every other child in America, maybe the world).
